GPS Insight Named Among Top Arizona Corporations at ACE Awards

Scottsdale, AZ—Phoenix Business Journal’s Arizona Corporate Excellence (ACE) Awards ranked GPS Insight the 41st largest company in Arizona. GPS Insight is a leading U.S. GPS tracking company for commercial and government fleets, headquartered in Scottsdale, Arizona. This is GPS Insight’s third year in a row being ranked as one of Arizona’s largest companies.

The ACE Awards gathers Arizona’s biggest and best private businesses to celebrate and honor their successes. The awards recognize private companies based on their overall revenue and their revenue growth.

GPS Insight has become one of the top businesses in Phoenix with over 120 employees, tracking over 100,000 vehicles and other assets. This is mainly due to its ability to separate itself from other providers in the space with its powerful analytics and an acute focus on the customer experience for fleet management professionals. GPS Insight understands that every fleet has different challenges and their technology was built with that in mind. By providing flexible fleet tracking solutions that are tailored to each customer, GPS Insight gives them the information they need to reduce costs, reduce risk, and increase revenue.

Robert Donat, Founder & CEO of GPS Insight, said, “GPS Insight is glad to be recognized by the Phoenix Business Journal in its list of top 50 largest privately held Arizona companies. We are proud to be included in this prestigious list of Arizona employers.”
